BREED THEATER.

"Judgment of the Mighty Deep,"
Scenic Feature.

Surely, the bill at the Breed theater this week is an exception to the rule, and each and every picture is a feature, and each was accorded generous applause at its conclusion. The most thrilling and pictorially attractive film story is the one entitled Judgment of the Mighty Deep. This is distinctly a story of the sea and the plain folks, and tells of the love of two fellows for the same girl. One she accepts, and the other she is compelled to dismiss him, in order to make her choice. This angers the rejected suitor, and hearing that his rival was to row across the bay to meet the girl of his choice, arranges a trap in his boat, so that when the unfortunate lover is in deep water, the boat commences to fill, and the revengeful suitor, overcome with remorse, hurries to the shore and makes for the sinking boat. Meanwhile, the girl goes to the rescue of both and succeeds in saving her lover, while the villain is lost in the tempestuous sea. This is a thrilling story of the ocean and is admirably enacted. The biograph story, What the Daisy Said, is a beautiful picture of the halcyon days of two young lovers, and shows some remarkable views of the rural district.
Miss Hampton sings the season's big hit, When You Love a Summer Girl, also the military march song, I Want to Be a Soldier Boy in Blue.

Borough Residents Regret Rev. M. H. May's Departure—Columbia Team Defeated, 17-7—New Hall Dedicated at Turnerville.

It is with the deepest regret that it is learned that Rev. M. H. May, pastor of St. Andrew's church, is to be transferred to St. Bernard's church, Rockville. Father May has been in this place for the past fourteen years, and has gained the respect of the whole community. He has been a member of the school board for a number of years. He will be greatly missed. He is a brilliant orator and has been heard at his best on a number of occasions. He was ordained Dec. 20, 1884, and celebrated his silver jubilee here.
